Fisher also covers practical topics like selecting the right type and length of rope, the best jumping surfaces, warming up, proper jumping form, making mistakes, and safety. -- Once your kids learn the basic skills and tricks in this book, there will be no end to the number of tricks they can learn and make up on their own or with friends. That's why this book will motivate your kids to stay in shape year-round (indoors and out).

Cool Jump-Rope Tricks You Can Do!

A lyrical picture book about the joy of jumping -- and a springboard for discussion about unique perspectives. Through the eyes of a character we only know as Trampoline Boy, we are invited to understand how he sees the world. His favorite thing to do is jump up and down, up and down on his trampoline. Kids walk by and tease him, but he remains steadfast and calm. One day, a quietly exuberant girl, Peaches, is fascinated by his jumping. Trampoline Boy wordlessly invites her to jump with him, and by spending this time with him, Peaches and readers get to see how important and valuable different perspectives are.

Puddles Are for Jumping

The 3 Cousins Jumping! is a children's picture book that shares the fun of jumping up and down on the trampoline. The story places the importance of exercise and the outdoor activities that are beneficial for the overall well being of the child's development. The story is about the fun of jumping on the trampoline. What a better way to have fun and exercise than jumping on a trampoline! Fun activity for young children is always a joy. Every child enjoys moving and jumping on the trampoline. It makes the child happy. The emphasis is placed on how the jumping and sharing the trampoline is a teamwork that breeds leadership. It also allows the child to challenge her/himself. Children demonstrate self confidence. Jumping and exercising is always enjoyable! Children are observant and active learners. The benefit of jumping enhances both the cognitive and the physical health of the child's development. It enhances the child's cognitive abilities that aids in the unfolding of the many potentials of the child. Children learn when the mind is inspired and stimulated by that which increases their skills. Enzo and his cousins are having fun jumping on his brand new trampoline! The objective of the story is naturally to inspire outdoor activities and exercising in the young child. In this picture book, Sophie, Emma and Enzo are having a great time jumping on the trampoline. They are delighted to have each others company. They are mastering skills and are also aware of jumping safe. The witty presentation of this story is to evoke the sense of joyful time of exercising that evokes learning and staying healthy while having fun. Enzo is actively involved. Sophie and Emma are also absorbed in having fun while they are jumping and also watching each others talents. The cousins are having great satisfaction knowing that they are participants. Children like to get engaged in sports activities and play. Jumping on the trampoline will effect the child's development in a wholesome way. Jumping exercises will help children's motor skills, coordination, balance, dexterity, muscle control, flexibility and movement. Exercise improves and gives children the opportunity to learn about their strengths and their awareness of the interaction process. In the course of jumping, children learn about themselves and their direct involvement with the environment around them. Helping, guiding and facilitating the possibilities for the child is to be accessing their environment safely that which is the very notion of giving that child the opportunity to learn about one's self; that in it self, is the learning process! As children exercise in any sport they learn to get along with others socially and learn to respect the environment. The notion of satisfaction in exercising is evident and the feel of belonging comes from their jumping on the trampoline time together is clearly expressed in the story. The story is whimsical! It is about fun and joyful times. Learning occurs when children are involved. Exercising and playing is cognitively stimulating and it is imperative and necessary for the healthy development of the child. The story is informative and educational. Children will naturally relate to the story. The information is drawn and presented based on concrete knowledge and learning processes. Children learn while they are directly involved and observing how things happen. They learn in a concrete and tangible ways. It is part of the child's nature to be inquisitive and observant. Exercise and jumping incorporates the very element of utilizing both the mental and physical abilities. Children are the bright future and the hope of human kind.

Walter lives near the top floor of a tall apartment building, where one night his habit of jumping on his bed leads to a tumultuous fall through floor after floor, collecting occupants all the way down.

Jumping Joe - Rhyming Poem for 4-8 Year Kids

Working up the courage to take a big, important leap is hard, but Jabari is almost absolutely ready to make a giant splash. Jabari is definitely ready to jump off the diving board. He's finished his swimming lessons and passed his swim test, and he's a great jumper, so he's not scared at all. "Looks easy," says Jabari, watching the other kids take their turns. But when his dad squeezes his hand, Jabari squeezes back. He needs to figure out what kind of special jump to do anyway, and he should probably do some stretches before climbing up onto the diving board. In a sweetly appealing tale of overcoming your fears, newcomer Gaia Cornwall captures a moment between a patient and encouraging father and a determined little boy you can't help but root for.

An old game helps a new kid find his footing. It is David's first day at his brand-new school. He doesn't know anyone. At recess, he stands alone and watches the other children enjoying their activities on the playground, from practicing soccer moves and climbing monkey bars to playing hopscotch and daydreaming in the grass. Bundled deep inside David's pocket is a string of rubber bands, knotted and ready for a game of elastic skip. But will anyone want to try that game? he wonders. Will anyone want to play with him? Sometimes you've got to stretch yourself to find the place where you belong.

NO MORE MONKEYS JUMPING ON THE BED The nursery rhyme Five Little Monkeys has long been a favorite song and finger play with the preschool set, but Eileen Christelow gives it new life as a hilarious picture book. Her expressive pencil and watercolor illustrations capture both the glee and the pratfalls of those misbehaving monkeys. A sure-fire hit at story hour, this rhythmic romp is a counting lesson, too, as the five bouncy bed-jumpers bump their heads and get hauled off to the doctor one by one. (IRA/CBC Children's Choice Award, 1990)"

The jumping spider is a family of 5000 different spider species that live all over the world. They vary in size and appearance but all have the most incredible ability to jump, sometimes up to 80 times its own body length! It's not just its amazing jumping skills that make this family of spiders special. Their eye sight is by far better than any other spider in the world. This is probably thanks to its eight eyes! Each pair does its own individual job and the result is the spider can see almost 360 degree around its whole body and it is thought to be the only type of spider that can see in color! The jumping spider uses its super skills in jumping and powerful eyesight to hunt its prey because unlike other spider families, the jumping spider does not build webs; instead it actively hunts his prey. This spider also needs to use its powers to escape becoming a tasty meal itself. Want to learn more about the jumping spiders? "Jumping Spider: Pictures and Fun Facts on Animals for Kids" is a wonderfully written book with colorful pictures for kids that will teach them about this amazing creature.
